The KPC Group are Proud Sponsors of the Long Beach-LA County Trade Mission to Kolkata, India

March 24, 2008

RIVERSIDE, California (March 24, 2008) – US and India, the world's two leading democracies, are entering a new era of relationship. As the world's economic landscape undergoes a defining metamorphosis, US and India are identifying new domains of cooperation and alignment in trade, commerce and related socio-economic platforms. The KPC Group are proud sponsors of the Long Beach-LA County Trade Mission to India held on March 2nd - 9th, 2008.

A delegation of 25 members, including Dr. Suja Lowenthal, Long Beach Councilmember along with Mario Cordero, President of Long Beach Board of Harbor Commissioners, officials from the World Trade Center Association Los Angeles-Long Beach, the Los Angeles County Economic Development Corporation, representatives of the City of Los Angeles International Trade office and the Los Angeles Board of Airport Commissioners, and representatives from local and regional engineering, technology and transportation-related companies visited Delhi, Mumbai and Kolkata to explore the opportunity of doing business in India and promote foreign investments to Long Beach and LA County.

The trade mission was supported by the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi, the U.S. consulates in Mumbai and Kolkata, and the West Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

The KPC Group, with extensive footprint in Kolkata including a The KPC Medical College & Hospital, Steel Detailing and Engineering operation, Pharmaceutical Research & Development Laboratory, and many other diversified businesses in the region, are delighted to support the City of Kolkata and the City of Long Beach to help strengthen its sister city relationship. The Trade Mission is the first step towards building a long-term relationship between the two regions - resulting in economic and socio-cultural benefits to its respective people and businesses.
